Reciprocal Health Agreements...EEA or Switzerland

The EEA consists of the European Union (EU) countries plus Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway.

You can find an EHIC application form online by visiting www.dh.gov.uk/travellers.

If the Underwriters agree to a claim for medical expenses which has been reduced because you used an EHIC or private health insurance, the Underwriters will not apply the excess for this section. If you do not have an EHIC, this Insurance will still be valid.

Australia

If the Insured Person needs medical treatment in Australia, they must enrol with a local MEDICARE office. They do not need to enrol when they arrive, but must do so after the first occasion they receive treatment. Inpatient and out-patient treatment at a public hospital will then be available free of charge. Details of how to enrol and the free treatment available can be found either by visiting www.dh.gov.uk/travellers or the MEDICARE website at www.hic.gov.au.

Amendments to the Certificate

Should the Insured Person (or Assured, if named in the Schedule) wish to amend the Insurance, notification of such amendment should be given to the Agent shown in the Schedule.

Are there charges for cancellation or amendment?

There may be a charge payable to the Agent shown in the Schedule for cancelling or amending the Certificate. If a charge is payable the amount will be advised to you by the Agent at the time of the notification.

General Conditions (applicable to the whole insurance)

Claims Under More Than One Section

In the event of any one occurrence giving rise to claims under more than one Section of the Certificate, only the one monetary exclusion of GBP50 each Insured Person shall be deducted from the total amount of the claim.

Fraudulent Claims

If the Insured Person, or anyone acting on their behalf, makes a claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent in amount or in any other respect, which is unknown to the Assured, the insurance will become invalid in respect of that Insured Person. This means the Underwriters will not pay the false or fraudulent claim, or any subsequent claim, in respect of that Insured Person.

If the Assured, or anyone acting on the Assured's behalf, makes a claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent in amount or in any other respect, the whole insurance will become invalid. This means the Underwriters will not pay the false or fraudulent claim, or any subsequent claim, in respect of the Assured and all Insured Persons.

Cancellation Of This Insurance

If the Period of Insurance is less than 3 months and/or cover has been purchased to insure a specific event/activity: -

- The Insured Person can cancel the Insurance from inception and receive a full refund of premium and tax if the Certificate and Schedule is returned to the Agent shown in the Schedule within 14 days of receipt or prior to the trip commencing or the activity taking place, whichever the earlier.
- There will be no refund after this time or if a claim is made.

If the Period of Insurance is 3 months or longer and cover does not relate to a specific event/activity: -

- The Insured Person can cancel the Insurance from inception and receive a full refund of premium and tax if the Certificate and Schedule is returned to the Agent shown in the Schedule within 14 days of receipt.
- There will be no refund after this time or if a claim is made. However should the Insured Person believe that there are legitimate reasons to have cancelled mid-term, then they may request a refund and this will be considered at the Underwriters' discretion.

Information Given To The Underwriters

In deciding to accept the Insurance and in setting the terms and premium, the Underwriters have relied on information given by the Insured Person. The Insured Person must ensure that all information provided is accurate and complete.

If it is established that the Insured Person deliberately or recklessly provided false or misleading information, the Underwriters will treat the Insurance as if it never existed and decline all claims.

If it is established that the Insured Person were careless in providing the information relied upon in accepting the Insurance and setting its terms and premium, the Underwriters will: -

- Treat the Insurance as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premium paid. This will only happen if the Underwriters provided insurance cover which would not otherwise have been offered, or
- Amend the terms of the Insurance. The Underwriters will apply these amended terms as if they were already in place if a claim has been adversely impacted by the Insured Person's carelessness, or
- Charge the Insured Person more for the Insurance or reduce the amount the Underwriters pay on a claim in the proportion the premium paid bears to the premium which the Underwriters would have charged.

The Underwriters or the Agent shown in the Schedule will write to the Insured Person if any of these actions are taken.

Reasonable Precautions

The Insured Person is required to take all reasonable precautions to protect themselves and their property as though they are uninsured.

Subrogation

The Underwriters shall be subrogated to all the Insured Person's rights of recovery against any person or organisation for any claim paid or payable under this Certificate up to the limit of the Underwriters' liability in respect of such claim. The Insured Person shall, wherever possible, give all such information and assistance as the Underwriters may require to secure such rights.

Non Payment Of Premium

If the premium has not been paid to the Agent specified in the Schedule within the payment terms agreed between the Insured Person and the Agent, then the Underwriters reserve the right to cancel the Insurance from inception as though cover was not taken up. The Underwriters or the Agent shown in the Schedule will write to the Insured Person if this action is taken.

This does not affect your statutory rights.
